TRACEABLE | SUSTAINABLE | CHROMIUM-FREE

NAKED SHEEP™ Eco Lamb represents the spirit of New Zealand’s natural farms. Our farmers work hand-in-hand with nature to ensure luxurious leather, while sustaining an environmental legacy to be passed on to generations to come.

NAKED SHEEP™ is produced with a tannage developed with a combination of natural oils and cashew extracts. Purposefully created with neutral pH, this leather is perfect for unlined next-to-skin uses and those with sensitive skin.

NAKED SHEEP™ is perfectly suited for use in ‘naked’ form in a range of natural earthy colours based on plant extracts. For brighter colours we offer your choice of top-dye (for dye-free contact with skin) or through-dye. We also offer a special range of metal-free dyes on request.

Our lining grade of NAKED SHEEP™ is ideal as nappa or suede for non-allergenic linings.
